

ROB GUEST ENDOWMENT: TERMS AND CONDITIONS 2019-2020

1. Information on how to enter the competition and information on prizes forms part of these conditions of entry. Entry into the competition constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions.
2. Entry is open to Australian residents between the age of 18 and 25 as at 30th November 2020 (“Entrants”). Failure to provide proof of age and citizenship if requested will result in your disqualification from the competition.
3. Any individual who has been contracted as a minor principal or principal role in a mainstage production in the past or signed contracts for future productions as defined by the PCA will not be eligible.
4. The competition concludes once the final audition is completed and all 2020 award winners have been officially announced by the Rob Guest Endowment.
5. To enter the competition, Entrants must submit their completed application form along with their filmed audition online. All first-round entries accepted via film only. Film entries must meet the below requirements:
 - a. Piano backing only (live or recorded)
 - b. Mid shot (below waist to above head)
 - c. Eyes directed towards the upper 2/3 of the screen
 - d. Must be recorded in a well-lit environment
 - e. A 3-minute excerpt or song sung in one take, no editing permitted
 - f. Footage must be in focus and of a reasonable quality (iPhone acceptable)
 - g. Applicant must introduce themselves and the song. No other information is necessary and will not be taken into consideration for the purposes of judging the entries.
 - h. There is a limit of one entry per entrant.

6. Entries that are, or include, obscene, offensive, defamatory, inappropriate, unsuitable, or which infringe content, in the opinion of the Friends Of Rob Guest Endowment (F.O.R.G.E.) Inc. will be invalid and will be deemed ineligible to win.
7. Entrants will be required to provide various personal details as specified in the application form including full name, email address, residential address, contact telephone numbers and proof of age for the purpose of verifying eligibility. Incorrect details may nullify the entry. Any incomplete entries may also be deemed invalid and disregarded.
8. The winner of the Rob Guest Endowment will receive a $50,000 talent development grant to be used for the winner's growth and development as an artist.
9. At the conclusion of the competition, before receiving the funds, the winner must submit a document outlining how they propose to use their funds. On approval of their study plan, the major award prize amount will be distributed by Creative Partnerships Australia (CPA) whilst all other prize elements will be facilitated by F.O.R.G.E. Inc.
10. The F.O.R.G.E. Inc. committee where possible will assist the winner in engaging with the relevant tutors in Australia and overseas to help maximise their gain from their nominated tuition plan. The winner will be asked to submit a detailed report to the Rob Guest Endowment Committee within three months of receiving the money, outlining the use of funds, the benefits gained from their prize, and their plans for the future. The funds are not to be used for non-performance related items. All prize values are in Australian dollars.
11. F.O.R.G.E. Inc. is not liable for any insurance or extra payments that may be incurred by the recipient that do not fall within the prize package.
12. The winner must fulfil the requirements of the award within one year of the announcement of the winner. If this is not possible, a document clearly outlining the reason for this must be submitted to the Rob Guest Endowment Committee for approval of an extension to the dates.

13. The second prize winner will receive a $5,000 award. These funds will be distributed by CPA and it is the responsibility of the artist to claim this prize.
14. The four (4) finalists not receiving either of the major prizes, will each receive $1,500 as runners up awards. These funds will also be distributed by CPA and it is the responsibility of the artist to claim this prize.
15. The prizes are not exchangeable nor transferable and non-cash prizes are not redeemable for cash.
16. Tax implications may arise from the prize winnings. Independent advice should be sought by the individual winners.
17. Entrants enter the competition at their own expense. No flights or accommodation required for participation in the finals will be covered by F.O.R.G.E. Inc.
18. This is a competition of skill. Chance plays no part in determining the winner. The Committee's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
19. The short-listed entrants will be notified by email, and if this is not possible, by phone. The final round of auditions require entrants be available for a live audition at a date/time to be determined. The final audition date is subject to change but once confirmed are not negotiable.
20. The semi-finalists should submit five song choices that they feel best demonstrate their abilities. The artist will provide the judges with a document and in order of preference list the song name, lyricist, composer and show from which the song is taken for all song choices.

21. If successful in gaining a place in the final six, the choice of songs for the final audition will be made by the judges from this provided song list document.
22. The six finalists will each perform two solo songs at the final audition. Artists must perform the songs chosen from the semi final auditions. Final song choice is subject to availability of music for performance in Australia. Any arrangements or orchestrations not provided by the musical director will be provided no less than one month before the final event for approval by the artist. The finalists may also be required to learn and perform in up to two ensemble pieces.
23. Finalists should be available for the complete day of the final audition to rehearse all items. Inability to attend the final event may result in a finalist being ruled ineligible to compete.
24. F.O.R.G.E. Inc. accepts no responsibility for any breach of contract or any infringement or other violation of copyright or any other intellectual property rights or proprietary rights through the acceptance of entries into the competition and each entrant takes full responsibility for any such claims made in relation to their entry.
25. All Entrants irrevocably agree and consent that F.O.R.G.E. Inc. may, and may authorise others to photograph, video, film and/or record them and edit, adapt, alter, omit and otherwise use the resulting materials, their name, likeness, image, actions, voice and/or biographical material (which includes, without limitation, any "personal information" as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (the Act) ("Materials")), in any and all media now known or hereafter devised, world-wide, in or in connection with the production, broadcast, marketing, promotion, publicity and exploitation of the Programme, in perpetuity without restriction. F.O.R.G.E. Inc. will own all rights, title and interest in any Materials and the results and proceeds of the Materials in perpetuity.
26. All entries and performances throughout the competition become the property of F.O.R.G.E. Inc. Entrants hereby irrevocably assign to F.O.R.G.E. Inc. all right, title and interest (including without limitation the entire copyright, including but not only a present assignment of future copyright) to the results and proceeds of Entrants' contributions to the competition including but not limited to any copyright in the entry sent to the Committee and including but not limited to any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (within the meaning of the Copyright Act 1968 (the Act) incorporated therein in which the Entrant owns copyright.

27. Entrants have no right to seek any royalty, payment or other compensation from F.O.R.G.E. Inc. and they must consent to F.O.R.G.E. Inc. using their names and images on promotional, marketing and publicity purposes material
28. Subject to additional consent, Entrants agree to participate in all F.O.R.G.E. Inc. publicity activities in relation to the competition and cause as requested. Entrants will not unreasonably withhold consent to participate in such publicity as required by the Committee or their associated agencies and companies associated with the competition.
29. F.O.R.G.E. Inc., its associated agencies and companies and the agencies and companies associated with the competition are not liable for any loss or damage whatsoever which is suffered (including but not limited to indirect or a consequential loss), or for personal injury suffered or sustained as a result of entering the competition or taking any prize, except for any liability that cannot be excluded by law.
30. F.O.R.G.E. Inc., will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever resulting from incorrect details lodged by Entrants.
31. F.O.R.G.E. Inc., reserves the right to vary the rules of any competition or any prizes offered or to cancel any competition if it is no longer able to run the competition due to reasons beyond its control, subject to state legislation. F.O.R.G.E. Inc. will not be liable for any losses to any party arising from any variation or cancellation.
32. To ensure consistency and fairness in judging the awards each year, where a high level of performance excellence is not achieved, the Rob Guest Endowment judging panel reserves the right to not award a winner, or have six finalists.
